[Correspondence of the Standard.] SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., March 22, 1886. Elitors of the Standard :- Ten long years have passed, bringing with the time many changes since the writer last beheld good and true and beautiful old North Carolina. During the time, his feet have pressed the soil of two continents, and he has three times visited this far off region of our own, with additional interest. Still, he can truly say, that no where has he beheld a brighter, a greener, a more lovely land than he left in ments, its pleasures and pains. Political life, social intercourse, with some of the usual dissipation of large towns has not taken from memory the sincere friendship evinced in acts by many of your people, and assuredly I would meet with very many iriends, and I trust, no enemies in the old North State, and much have I desired to see again its hills, valleys and plains.

Numbers of times have I traveled along its various roads, and very few of its interesting localities from Wilmington to the Pilot Mountain, from Burcombe to Currituck have escaped my attention. Many regrets have I that I shall never again see the land. Varied interests and pursuits on these far off shores of the Pacide will preclude my ever leaving them even to pass an hour with William W. Holden or a month with John A. McMannen. I own both of silver and gold mines, but none I would as gladly visit as South Lowell, in Orange county. However, I advise you of matters on "this coast." With your consent, I will forward you a monthly statement of the progress of our mining interest, commencing with the copper mines of Del Norte, and Copperopolis. The Annila Copper Mining Company of California has a property of some two millions in value, and are now making gigantic exertions to develope the same. It is situated in the vicinity of Crescent City, and full particulars will be given of it and others in my next.

This city is increasing. It has the trade of the States of California, Origon and Nevada, with much of that of Idaho, Washingington and Arazonia Territories. Its popu lation is one hundred and twenty thousand, without reference to the Chinese. Beauty and fashion in abundance are found here. -A visitor to Montgomery Street almost fancies he is in Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, and if he goes out to "The Mission," he is

The harbor of San Francisco is equal to any on the Atlantic coast, though not improved as that of New York. Adieu. C. H. B.

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.) DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Raleigh, April Sorh, 1866. Mussus, Entreus:-Please state in your paper that the lists of Acting Justices of the Peace have not been received from the following Counties, viz: Alleghany, Cherokee, Chowan, Clay, Cra-

Surry, Watauga and Wilkes. It is very necessary that the County Court Clerks should forward them, as I can send the laws only to those reported to this office as having qualified; and if any more should qualify in the Counties already reported, the Clerks will please inform me immediately.

Your obedient servant, R. W. BEST, Secretory of State, All papers in the State will come: a favor

consin tells the following:

A few weeks ago a large number of pigeons had made a resting place under the cornice of the Austin Block, corner of Spring and West Water streets, and had become so great an annoyance it was necessary to keep them away. For this purpose a wire gauze was nailed up the full length of the cornice. It happened that when the gauze was put up one of the pigeons remained behind it a close prisoner there, and has been for three weeks, but during all the time he has been daily fed by his companions. Almost every hour of the day several pigeons will be found clinging to the gauze, and waiting patiently their turn to deliver to the imprisoned pigeon the food they have brought him, and every one seems to be more anxious to sup ply him than he is to feed himself. The most choice bits that can be picked up are reserved for their poor companion, and he is now living on the fat of the land. We have no doubt that, like an honest pigeon, as he is, he would prefer to break the chains which bind him and work for his living, but as he cannot do that, must submit to being the pet of the flock,

A REMARKABLE CURE.-A young man wanted to marry a girl out in Wisconsin, but her rich parents forbade the match. The young man became sick-very sick-and had terible fainting fits. The doctors were called, and said he would soon die, and he said he wanted to. The father of the girl visited the patient, and agreed with both him and the doctors. The poor fellow said that if he could mary his Mary Ann he would die happily. His dying request certainly could not be refused, and Mary Ann having no objection, the mintster was sent for, and the solemn ordinance of marriage performed before the most solemn messenger of death should step in to snatch away the gaspin bridegroom from time to the regions of eternity. The knot being securely tied the patient rose from the bed a well man. It was a great cure, astonishing both the cruel "parient" and the doctors, but the bride acted as though she had expected it all the time.

THE RADICALS HAVE METTHEIR MATCH.-The N. Y. Post, a paper which has con-demned the President for his 22d of Pebruary speech, nevertheless tells the destructive

"The extreme men in Congress, have discovered too, that they have got to deal with a man who can repel violence by violence, with a man of earnest convictions, of firm and positive character: one who is not to be driven, nor brow-beaten; one who is to be treated respectfully as a full grown statesman and a power. * * * And he holds that loyal representatives, capable of taking the proper oath, ought to be admitted at once. On that head we do not see how there can be two opinions; and yet Congress persists, from mere punctillo, in refusing loyal element of the South."

BANK OF CHARLOTTE.-A meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of Charlotte was held in this place on Thursday last. The Directors were authorized to close the affairs of the Bank in accordance with the late Act of the Legislature, whenever they thought proper to do so .- Charlotte Democrat.

The Weekly Standard.

RALEIGH, N. C. THURSDAY, - - - - MAY 3, 1866.

We publish in another column the report of the committee on reconstruction, proposing certain amendments to the

The first amendment proposed is in- ernor's Office, which can be had by the partended to secure to all citizens of the United States, including the colored population, the same privileges and immunities, and the same protection under the law to life, liberty, and property .-This is not intended to include the right of suffrage, but suffrage is left to the individual States, to be determined as they may choose.

Members of the House of Representatives shall be based on numbers, but if male negroes are denied the right to vote they shall not be counted in apportioning representatives.

Until the 4th day of July, 1870, all persons who voluntarily adhered to the late insurrection, giving it aid and comfort, shall be excluded from the right to vote for members of Congress and for electors of President and Vice President. This is intended to secure the control of public affairs to the "unmisven, Gaston, Gates, Haywood, Tanderson, Jackson, Macon, Martin, Mitchell, Stanly, takably loyal men." By the second section of the first article of the present Constitution, it is provided that-

"The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States, and the electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature."

It is also provided, in article second, that "each State shall appoint, in such manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors," &c., for President and Vice President. It there fore follows, if the above amendment should be adopted, that the electors or voters for members of the Legislature must be the same as those for members of Congress and President and Vice President; and none who participated voluntarily in the rebellion can vote for the latter. This fact seems to have been overlooked by our cotemporaries

It is provided that whenever the pro- following Postmasters: posed amendments shall become part of C. F. The following statement by our neighbor of the Sentinel is clearly un-

"The report of the Committee proceeds upon the vicious and inadmissible idea, that the States lately in rebellion effected and made good their ordinances of secession by their revolt, and that they are consequently out of the Union, beyond the pale of the Constitution, if, indeed, they admit that such an instrument is now in force at all,"

The most cursory reading of the report will convince any one that our neighbor is mistaken. The States are all treated as States, and provision is made for "the restoration of the States | ply;" I want your daughter." lately in rebellion, to their full political rights." There is no admission that the States actually seceded, or that they made good their revolt. In this respect at least, there is no difference between the report and the policy of the President.

We shall discuss more fully hereafter the various features of this report.

Before these proposed amendments can be submitted to the States they iards bestow alms as unconcernedly as they must pass both houses of Congress by roll cigarettes. It is one of the conditions a two-thirds vote. It is more than probable that the required two-thirds will

The colored children of this City attached to the various schools, had a celebration on the 1st of May, which was well conducted, and seemed to afford much pleasure to those who participated in it. From the appearance of the procession there seemed to be 800 to 1,000 of all ages out on the occasion. Nothing occurred to produce ill feeling between the two races. We trust that good feeling may continue to exist between the whites and blacks.
